

THE VAN HORNE INSTITUTE

2016 CANADIAN INLAND PORTS
CONFERENCE

James Auld
Senior Manager, Corporate Development
CN

James Auld joined CN in November 2013 and is a Senior Manager in the Corporate Development group. He works on CN's strategic initiatives for developing business in Western Canada and is based out of CN's Calgary Logistics Park.

Prior to joining CN, Mr. Auld spent over 26 years in the oil and gas sector focused on midstream assets such as storage, pipelines, processing, refining and terminals. Mr. Auld has held key roles in marketing, trading, operations and business development. In addition to his Corporate Development work he is an Energy Subject Matter Expert for CN.

Mr. Auld holds a Masters in Business Administration from Nova Southeastern University and a Bachelor of Science degree in computer science from the University of Calgary. He also completed a Strategic Leadership Certificate from the University of British Columbia, and CN's Railroad MBA program.