

THE VAN HORNE INSTITUTE

2016 CANADIAN INLAND PORTS CONFERENCE

Tiffany Melvin J.D
President

North American Strategy for Competitiveness, Inc. (NASCO)

Tiffany is the original Executive Director of NASCO – North American Strategy for Competitiveness – and has served in that capacity for 18 of its 22 years. She was named President of NASCO in January 2015 by the NASCO Board of Directors.

Under her vision and leadership, NASCO has grown into a widely respected, tri-national coalition focusing on freight logistics, energy and the environment, and skilled workforce certification programs. She directs NASCO with an aggressive, far reaching, cooperative approach to solving critical issues impacting the efficient, secure and sustainable movement of freight throughout North America.

Tiffany also serves on the U.S. Department of Commerce Advisory Council on Supply Chain Competitiveness and is the Chairman of its Information Technology and Data Subcommittee, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security Advisory Council's Border Infrastructure Task Force, the U.S. Customs and Border Protection's Advisory Committee on Commercial Operations to Customs and Border Protection (COAC) North American Single Window Vision Working Group (NASVWWG), the Manufacturing Skill Standards Council (MSSC) Leadership Council, the Eno Center for Transportation

Freight Working Group (as the alternate representing Texas), the North Central Texas Council of Governments' Regional Freight Advisory Committee, and the Bi-national Board of the U.S. Mexico Chamber of Commerce.

Tiffany is a graduate of The University of Texas at Austin, holding a BBA in International Business, with minors in Marketing and Spanish. She received her Juris Doctor degree from St. Mary's University School of Law in San Antonio in 1995, and is a certified mediator and arbitrator.

“NASCO is the only tri-national organization focused on the competitiveness of the North American supply chain, workforce and energy independence.”

www.nasconetwork.com