Lourdes DaCosta
Senior Competition Law Officer
Competition Bureau

Lourdes DaCosta is a Senior Competition Law Officer in the Mergers and Monopolistic Practices Branch at the Competition Bureau. She joined the Bureau in June 1992 after completing a Masters Degree in Economics from the University of Toronto. Since that time, Ms. DaCosta has primarily worked in the Mergers Directorate, where she has led major merger investigations, including cases that resulted in contested proceedings and consent agreements before the Competition Tribunal. She has worked on significant mergers in various sectors of the economy, including banking, pharmaceuticals and the waste industry. Ms. DaCosta also has extensive competition policy experience, having been involved in policy initiatives relating to the merger enforcement guidelines, merger remedies and the compliance framework within the Bureau."
