

2017 Canadian Inland Ports Conference

Michael Hoffman
South Carolina Ports Authority
General Manager, Intermodal Operations

As General Manager of Intermodal Operations, Michael Hoffman manages and oversees operations at the SC Inland Terminals in Greer, South Carolina and the new facility that is currently under development in Dillon, South Carolina . He also manages the rail drayage program between the CSX and Norfolk Southern rail yards and the marine terminals at the Port of Charleston. His has 15 years of experience working in the maritime industry and has managed breakbulk, container, RO-RO, and automobile operations for the SC Ports Authority in Charleston. Mr. Hoffman received his BA degree in Maritime Affairs from the University of Miami, FL and has been involved with the inland terminal projects for over 4 and a half years now. Michael currently calls Greenville, SC home, and has a wife and two children.