Bryan Richards is President & CEO of the Global Transportation Hub, Regina, SK; Canada's only autonomous and self-governing inland port authority.

He assumed the helm in August 2013 following a 30-year career in transportation, the last 15 in Saskatchewan as a key member of the Yanke Group of Companies' senior executive team.

Mr. Richards is a graduate of Laurentian University. In addition to his work, he has been active in the community; a long-term board member and chair of the Children's Hospital Foundation of Saskatchewan (now Jim Pattison Children's Hospital) and currently serves as a board member of the Canadian Trucking Alliance, and board member and Governance Committee chair on the Saskatchewan Trucking Association, plus numerous nonprofit board appointments.

Mr. Richards is married and has three grown children.
