

Daniel Dagenais
Vice-President, Operations

Mr. Daniel Dagenais brings over 25 years of shipping industry experience to his position. Before joining the Montreal Port Authority as Director of Operations, in March 2007, he accumulated a wealth of experience as a terminal operator, for bulk, non-containerized and containerized terminals.

On January 27, 2014, Mr. Dagenais was promoted to the position of Vice-President, Operations. He oversees the following departments: Environment, Infrastructure Management, Port Logistics, Marine Operations and Security and Fire Prevention.

Holder of a management undergraduate diploma from McGill University specializing in transportation and logistics and a certificate of training for executives exercise from HEC, Mr. Dagenais is President of the Groupe conseil maritime – Quebec region, member of Initiatives for the Future of Great Rivers (IFGR), member of the Board of Directors of the Association québécoise des transports and member of the Canadian Institute of Traffic and Transportation where he also served as director on the National Board for three years.

2017-06-01

Canada

port-montreal.com