David Kalinchuk - Economic Development Manager, Rocky View County

David Kalinchuk is the Economic Development Manager for Rocky View County. Dave is also the proud recipient of Alberta's '2018 Economic Developer of the Year'. Surrounding the City of Calgary, Rocky View is one of Canada's most diverse, dynamic and prosperous "rurban" municipalities. His responsibilities include investment attraction, site selector communications, marketing and corporate image development.

Dave regularly travels overseas to deliver lectures at universities, business schools and international conferences throughout Central and Eastern Europe. Dave has written a book entitled Rich for the Right Reasons – Economic Development of the Individual. Dave's professional memberships include the International Economic Development Council in Washington D.C. (IEDC), Economic Developers Association of Alberta (EDA) and the Economic Developers Association of Canada (EDAC). Dave is also a member of CoreNet (Corporate Real Estate Network), the Industrial Asset Management Council (IAMC), the Council of Supply Chain Management Professionals (CSCMP) and the International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC). On behalf of Rocky View County, Dave regularly attends member summits for WESTAC (the Western Transportation Advisory Council).
