

Evan Lewis

Director, Europe, Middle-East and Africa Division
Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada

Evan Lewis has been Director, Europe, Middle East and Africa Division in the AAFC Market Access Secretariat since July 2017.

Mr. Lewis previously worked at Global Affairs Canada (GAC), most recently as Deputy Director in the Trade Policy Negotiations Asia division. Previous assignments included First Secretary, Permanent Mission of Canada to the World Trade Organization in Geneva, Switzerland (2012-2016), Deputy Director, Softwood Lumber Division (2009-2012), Deputy Director, Multilateral Trade Policy Division (2008-2009) and in the Technical Barriers and Regulations division (2005-2008).

Mr. Lewis has a Bachelor of Arts degree in International Development from the University of Guelph, and a Master's of Arts degree in International Affairs, International Trade Policy specialization, from the Norman Patterson School of International Affairs at Carleton University.