

Kelly Block was first elected to the House of Commons in 2008. She was re-elected in 2011 and 2015.

Currently, Kelly Block serves as the vice-chair of the Standing Committee of Transport, Infrastructure and Communities.

Additionally, since 2015, Kelly Block has served as the Conservative Party's shadow minister for transport.

During the previous Conservative government, Kelly Block served as the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister of Natural Resources from 2013 to 2015.

As a Member of Parliament, she has served on several standing committees, as well as special committees.

Prior to being elected as a Member of Parliament, Kelly served on the town council of Waldheim, Saskatchewan for three terms, serving two of those terms as Mayor. At the same time she was a member of the Saskatoon Regional Health Authority and the Director of Administration at Forest Grove Community Church.