

BIO: Ms. Kleo Landucci

Ms. Kleo Landucci is Chief Commercial & Corporate Affairs Officer at Ashcroft Terminal Ltd. – A Member of the PSA Group of Companies. In July 2018, PSA Group purchased a majority stake in Ashcroft Terminal. Prior to the Joint Venture, Ms. Landucci served in various capacities, most recently as Managing Director – a position she held from 2016. Ashcroft Terminal is an inland Rail Transloading & Storage Terminal, located in Ashcroft, British Columbia.

Ms. Landucci has also served as, Vice President, Business Development & Operations of CrescentView Investments (CVI) from 2004 to 2018. At CVI, Ms. Landucci managed assets, acquisitions, investments and real estate developments.

Prior to joining CVI, from 2000-2004, Ms. Landucci was employed by Canada's largest Independent Investment Firm. She worked primarily with the Equity Capital Group in the sales of New Issue products.

Ms. Landucci is a member of the Board of Directors of Ashcroft Terminal Ltd., the Freight Management Association of Canada and the Van Horne Institute. She serves on several industry and association committees including both the Trade & Transportation and Ottawa Liaison committees at the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, the Environment and Energy & Climate Policy Committees at the Business Council of British Columbia, as well as the Regional Transportation & Infrastructure Committee at the Greater Vancouver Board Trade. Ms. Landucci has participated in industry panels and discussions at Trade & Transportation conferences throughout North America. From 2008-2012, Ms. Landucci served as Co-Chair of Toast to the Coast, an annual fundraising event at the Vancouver Aquarium.

From 2012 - 2016, Ms. Landucci participated in the Executive Business programs at Harvard Business School. She studied at Simon Fraser University from 2006-2007 and completed a Diploma, from Capilano University in 1999. Ms. Landucci lives in Vancouver, BC with her two children.