

Peter Kuperis is the Director of Domestic and International Trade Policy with Alberta Agriculture and Forestry. He works on trade agreements such as the World Trade Organization. The Canada-European Union Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement (CETA).and the North American Free Trade Agreement. He also works to defend Alberta programs in trade disputes.

Peter has a background in agriculture. His family operated a small meat processing plant and a cow-calf operation.