

The Van Horne Institute & The Calgary
Chamber of Commerce Present The Transportation

Distinguished Speaker
Series
Friday, May 9, 2003

His Excellency Paul Cellucci
U.S. Ambassador to Canada

Paul Cellucci presented his credentials as the twentieth United States Ambassador to Canada to Governor General Adrienne Clarkson, on April 17, 2001, at the Citadelle in Quebec City.

Paul Cellucci's career in government began in 1970, when he was elected to the Hudson Charter Commission. Ambassador Cellucci, a strong advocate for smaller government and lower taxes, signed the then largest tax cut in Massachusetts history in 1998, and led the campaign for an even larger tax cut which was approved by voters at the polls in November.
