

Albert Kamps is a third-generation dairy farmer from Lacombe, AB. Working with his wife and son, they milk 130 registered Holsteins, which is about the average herd size for Alberta. Albert was elected to the Alberta Milk board of directors 11 years ago, and has served as chairman and vice-chair, his current position. Albert is also a delegate to Dairy Farmers of Canada.